Garlock – SWE Rochester Explorer Post

As our Outreach efforts continue, the most recent Explorer's Post visit to Garlock on February 23rd was a huge success! Garlock assembled six engineers, all with varying levels of experience and background, to present the products their company design and manufacture. In addition to a Q&A session, our group of high school girls and some of the parents were able to tour parts of the factory and even witness one of Garlock's qualifying test rigs in action! A big thank you goes to Andy Geoghan for organizing the event and the five other engineers who volunteered their time to educate prospective female engineers. Stay tuned for our following Explorer's Posts March 15 at Bergmann Associates and April 12 at SPX.
